Sotir AVRAMI, Androkli BALTADORI, Halim BEGEJA, Bushdi DAGA, Nikollaq DELIRNA, Luan GASHI, Zef GERA, Vasil GERMANJI, Burhan JUKA, Gene KORCA, Nuci KOTTA, Edward LICO, Michael MARKU, Muharem REMO and Kin SHESTANI. In addition, IO presented in FEC memorandum relative to the formation of a new Committee to be called the "Free Albanian Committee" and suggestions for the liquidation of the NCFA at such time as an agreement is reached to terminate the NCFA and form a new Committee. It was agreed that prior to the implementation of these proposals, it would first be necessary to obtain the approval of the Department of State. On the advice of the SE representatives, the IO representatives agreed to convene a meeting for this purpose in the near future with appropriate Department of State officials.

f. The Albanian Government's 5 January list of persons not eligible to return to Albania under the provisions of the recent amnesty decree included the names of most of the principle leaders of the NCFA.

c. Pending Action:

1. Discussions between SE, IO and the Department of State personnel concerning the establishment of a new Albanian Committee and termination of SE support to the NCFA.

2. The amendment of OHLIVIOUS project from a proprietary to a subsidy project is pending.

d. Security Factors:

1. We have been advised through the Office of Security that Hasan DOSTI met with a USIA official on 10 January and stated that he was making the contact on behalf of CIA in order to obtain information on Gajo PAZE, the Albanian delegate to the United Nations. In our reply to USIA, we indicated that DOSTI was asked to query friends concerning the UN delegate. However, if DOSTI did indicate to his friend in USIA that he was making contact with him on behalf of CIA, this was a regrettable error. There is some reason to doubt that DOSTI actually said to his USIA friend that he was making contact on behalf of CIA. In any case, DOSTI will be reminded to refrain from representing himself as working on behalf of CIA.
